ACTION AGAINST POWELL DISMISSED

NEW YORK (AP)—A $1 million suit against Adam Clayton Powell was dismissed Thursday by State Supreme Court Justice Gerald P. Culkin.

The suit in behalf of Esther James, 70, asked $1 million in punitive and compensatory damages because of alleged trouble she had collecting a $56,000 libel judgment from the deposed Harlem congressman, who was re-elected in Tuesday's national election.

T P
11-8-68